

17-YEAR-OLD BOY BANDIT'S GANG HOLD UP DRIVER

Leader Mounts Wagon Seat
and Calls Pals with Whistle Blast.

DRAWS GUN ON POLICE.

Two Plain Clothes Men Are
Menaced by Bold
Highwaymen.

In the arrest of a seventeen-year-old desperado, the police of the Glendale, L. I. station, believe they have hit a lead to the solution of the murder of Laundryman Peton, who was dragged from his wagon, a year ago, and robbed and murdered. That crime was committed outside of Calvary Cemetery.

Last night a similar wagon hold-up, attended by features which indicate that a gang operated in conjunction with the desperate seventeen-year-old highwayman, took place, a comparatively short distance from the scene of the Peton crime.

Edward Wadsworth, a driver for the Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, had lost his way in the lonely section in the neighborhood of Palmetto street and the Long Island Railroad crossing in Queens. Percy Geiring, of Covert avenue, Ridgewood, volunteered to direct Wadsworth and clambered up on the seat beside the driver.

Near the crossing Geiring pulled out a revolver and pressed the muzzle against the temple of Wadsworth, saying: "If you make a yell I'll plug you!" Geiring whistled and three others ran up, grabbed the horse and drew revolvers. Wadsworth was robbed of $36, a portion of his collections for the day.

Geiring then attempted to drive off with the horse and wagon, leaving Wadsworth prisoner in the grasp of his accomplices, when plain-clothes men Stevens and Gallagher of the Glendale station, arrived. Geiring, who was particularly nervous, aimed his gun at Gallagher's head, threatening to shoot from the wagon seat. He was clubbed and the rest of the gang escaped.

Geiring was arraigned in the Flushing Police Court to-day and held without bail by Magistrate Fitch.

The Glendale police expect to round up Geiring's pals to-day.

$200,000 BLAZE AT ROEBLING PLANT

Flames Sweep Two Acres and Destroy Big Buildings of Trenton Works.

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 5.—Two large buildings of the John A. Roebling's Sons' Company, wire rope manufacturers, in this city, were destroyed by fire to-day, involving a loss of about $200,000. The buildings, which covered about two acres, were filled with valuable machinery. One of the destroyed structures was the rope mill, and was two stories high and more than 500 feet long.

The fire started about 6 A. M., shortly after the night shift men had gone home. The firemen had much difficulty in fighting the flames because of intense cold. Some of the fire plugs were frozen and had to be thawed out.

Three laborers who were assisting the firemen had a narrow escape from death. They were near one of the buildings when a wall fell, and one of them was caught in the debris and sustained a broken leg. The other two escaped unhurt.

About 40 men are thrown out of work by the fire.

REALTY BROKER IS ACCUSED AS FORGER

Former President Van Nostrand, of Suburban Homes Company, Arrested.

Philip Van Nostrand, a real estate broker and former President of the Nassau Suburban Home Company, who lives at No. 126 Oakland street, Greenport, was arrested in Brooklyn to-day on a warrant issued by Justice of the Peace Charles Budhill, of Freeport, on a charge of forgery. John J. Jones, President of the Suburban Home Company, is complainant.

Van Nostrand, his wife and nine children formerly lived in Freeport, where he was prominent in the Baptist Sunday School. It is alleged that he disappeared last October, and that a shortage in his accounts amounting to $3,000 was discovered. It is alleged the shortage was covered by checks for labor which were never received by persons in whose favor they were supposed to be drawn.
